NELSON-HERRERA MATCH SETTLED

McCarey Will Pull It Off at Los Angeles.

SENTIMENT FAVORS DANE

Advance Guard of Frisco Fighters Reaches Chicago—Little Doing on the Coast.

By CHIP.
CHICAGO, May 5.—It is now definitely settled, apparently, that fiesta or no fiesta, the Nelson-Herrera battle will come off at Los Angeles as per the original schedule, May 25. Manager McCarey, of the Pacific Athletic Club, has heretofore announced that, although he stands to lose $25,000—My! what a bunch of money—he will nevertheless pull off the fight.

It is to be earnestly hoped that Mr. McCarey's zeal for the good of the sport will not allow him to be drawn into any such expenditure, and despite his pessimistic utterings, it is not likely that any such financial calamity will overtake him. It is pretty safe to say that the Californian, while he may not make any great amount on the fight, has made some sort of a compromise with the fighters regarding the $20,000 purse originally offered, and that all concerned will be satisfied to get what they can out of the enterprise and let it go at that. The little shakeup at San Francisco has considerably affected the pugilistic market, for a while, at least.

So Herrera and Nelson are working hard these days and will be in shape to put up one of the best battles that has occurred in these parts for some time. Sentiment still continues to favor the Dane, on account of his previous win over the Mexican, but it must be remembered that the margin was a narrow one in the first encounter, and that Herrera was in never so good condition as at present. In fact, it is said that only in the past few months has he ever taken a training schedule seriously.

The Attell-Nell go has been called off and instead Kid Herman will hook up with little Abe. The match was probably suggested by the very interesting bout that the boys put up on the occasion of the Los Angeles benefit for their Frisco brethren. The two will meet at 125 pounds, which means that Attell will have something like five or six pounds the worst of it, as he can easily do 122. In these days of haggling over a pound between the little fellows this looks like a burst of generosity on the part of the little fellow that will take all his reputed cleverness to overcome. Of course, a defeat for him at Herman's hands will not mean much of a setback, as he will still retain the featherweight championship, and probably will receive an even split of the purse, anyway. The affair will probably turn out to be a very pretty exhibition of the fine points of the game and honors even, with little or no damage done at the end of the twentieth round.

Benny Yanger and Tom Prendergast are sure to have a warm session at Kalamazoo next Saturday. The latter fighter came into prominence a few weeks ago by decisively defeating Tommy Mowatt. A win over Yanger will give him considerable prestige. The Italian, however, has been going at a fast clip of late, and is anxious to demonstrate that he is as good as ever.

Young Corbett showed very plainly Monday night when Dick Hyland beat him so badly that the fight was stopped, that he is about done. The ex-champion has become merely a stepping block for men that would have been easy for him when in his prime. He has lost everything—strength, cleverness, and the rest of it, and will probably never again be seen in the ring, unless as a fourth-rater. In his present shape he could hardly beat a drum.

Hyland's victory, however, over the fallen idol has brought him a little glory, chiefly on account of the workmanlike manner in which he set about to accomplish it, and he is being much sought after by the matchmakers. A match between him and Charley Neary, who came to life the other night and beat Jimmy Briggs at Boston, is being talked of, also a go with Benny Yanger. Either proposition looks good.

The advance guard of the exodus from the coast has already reached Chicago. The boys realize that there will be little doing out there for six months or possibly longer, and are hiking east, some in the aristocratic Pullmans and others in the humble box car. Frankie Nell, forsaking it, proposed a match with Abe Attell, at Los Angeles, was one of the first to reach here. His father wants him to return, but the boy is desirous of going to New York, and has as yet not decided which way to turn. Billy Roche passed through a few days ago with Rock Kees, the crack Australian lightweight, saying he was the best man the antipodes have turned out since Young Griffo started the pugilistic world. Dick Hyland, previously mentioned, is another "native son."

Two Chicago fighters, Fred Cooley and Dick Fitzpatrick, who went to Frisco to all encourage fans and were in active training when the car trouble came, have been impressed into service by the militia, together with their faithful managers, and write that they are keeping in splendid condition by helping clear away the debris.

In the meantime it is reported that Burns and Bob Fitzsimmons—Old Bob is determined to keep in the limelight, somehow—are matched to meet at Tom O'Rourke's Tuxedo Club, just when is not certain. There have been so many matches arranged for this organization that have so far failed to materialize that we are beginning to be a little skeptical of the whole proposition. Nevertheless, we are willing to be shown for if Tom can make it stick, it will help a whole lot, with things as they are at present.

COLUMBIA BESTS CHEVY CHASE TEAM

LEE HARBAN ON HIS GAME

Finishes Four Up on McCammon. Baltimore Country Club to Play Here.

The Columbia golf team successfully defended its right to the Middle Atlantic States challenge cup yesterday afternoon by defeating a team from Chevy Chase Club over the eighteen-hole course at Columbia. It was a five-team match and Columbia won, 3 to 2. Notwithstanding the heavy rain, the match was completed and good golf was played by both teams. Lee Harban, Columbia, beat Ormsby McCammon 4 up and 3 to play. He had the Chevy Chase man 6 down at the turn, but the latter picked up on the second nine. Mattingly, Columbia, beat Dalzell, Chevy Chase, 6 up. S. W. Harban beat W. Reyburn, 1 up. Allan Lard, Columbia, was 3 down to Harrison, Chevy Chase, and John Davidson, Chevy Chase, was six down to Morven Thompson. The cup which has been set up by the Middle Atlantic States Association is to be competed for by the golf clubs in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia. The cup was given this year to the Columbia Club to defend. Any club in the association has the right to challenge the holder two weeks from the date of the last competition. The Baltimore Country Club has challenged Columbia, and the match will be played two weeks from yesterday.

VIRGINIA'S ASYLUM SHAME SHOWN UP

Hideos Stories From the Williamsburg Hospital Developed at Investigation. Patients Shamefully Treated.

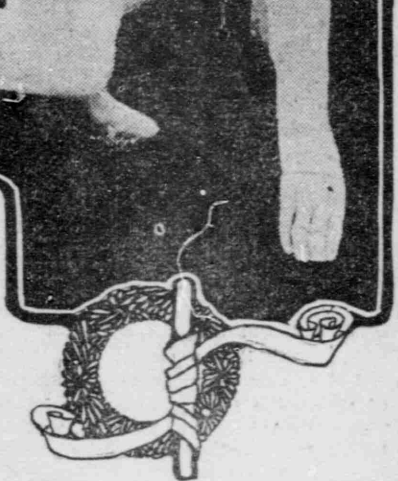

NORFOLK, Va., May 5.—The investigation into the management of the Williamsburg Insane Asylum continued to bring forth startling developments today. It is probable that the revelations will lead to a legislative investigation of all hospitals and all other eleemosynary institutions of the State.

It was testified today by Dr. Henderson, one of the attendants at the institution, that a woman patient in the asylum had been kept in a straitjacket for three years, day and night. She was released by order of Dr. Henderson.

SEVENTH REGIMENT HUNDRED YEARS OLD

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Seventh Regiment of the New York State National Guard, celebrated its 100th anniversary today. This afternoon the members of the regiment, as at present constituted, together with a large number of former members, numbering over 2,000 men all told, participated in a street parade, and passed in review before many notable military and other officials.

Tonight the members and their friends attended a banquet. Toasts were responded to by Secretary Taft, Gen. Horace Porter, General Mills, Corporation Counsel Delaney, and Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans.

"LOST CHILD" HE FOUND WAS REALLY HIS OWN

NEW YORK, May 5.—Policeman Vincent Vining, of the Fourth Avenue (Brooklyn) police station, after turning in his own little daughter to the police matron as a lost child, has decided that it is time for him to have an acquaintance, at least by sight, with his immediate family.

Pacing his beat yesterday, he was met by a two-year-old girl, who ran up to him with outstretched arms calling out "Oh papa! Oh papa!" He spoke a friendly word or two and started to go on when the child began to weep bitterly. Then the policeman tried to soothe her and find out where she lived, but the baby's feelings were hurt and she would not be comforted.

AUTOMOBILE PARTY CRASHES INTO CAR

Woman May Die as Result of Collision.

HIDING THEIR IDENTITY

Thought That Rival Chauffeurs Were Engaging in a Race When Accident Happened.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Two men and two women in an automobile were knocked out of their seats in a collision with a creston car at 145th street and St. Nicholas avenue early this morning, and one was perhaps fatally hurt. The car was wrecked.

Mrs. M. L. Sproul, living at the Lexington Hotel, was hurled from automobile and received internal injuries and possible fracture of skull.

Robert E. Shaw, twenty-one years old, of Sidney place, Brooklyn, knocked out of automobile, bruised.

Harry Hoffman, twenty-five, of 234 East Eighty-ninth street, bruises, went home.

The police of the West 125th street station think the party was made up of chauffeurs using their employer's automobile to give their "lady friends" an outing. There was a second automobile also with two men and two women in it, which appeared shortly after the collision from the same direction, and in which Mrs. Stanley and Hoffman rode away. The police heard that the two machines had been racing down the avenue.

The automobile was going south at a rate which touched close upon the speed limit. At 145th street a car was going east, driven by Motorman John Brenahan, of 500 West Fifty-first street. Shaw, who was driving the automobile, says that the motorman gave him no warning, but Brenahan denies this. The car struck the automobile on its side between the wheels and smashed the tonneau and put the engine out of business.

Mrs. Sproul stood up in the automobile when she saw the shock imminent, and she was hurled twenty feet in the air to the side of the tracks.

The other three were thrown out, but not so badly hurt. Brenahan stopped his car, had pushed the automobile a few feet.

Arrested for Arguing. Patrolman Lombard, of the West 125th street station, heard the crash, and ran to the scene, first sending in an ambulance call to his station. Ambulances were called from the J. Hood Wright and Washington Heights hospitals, with Drs. Corbier and Newell, respectively. Mrs. Sproul, who is a tall, good-looking brunette, was found unconscious, and it was decided to take her to the Washington Heights Hospital. Shaw objected, and when Lombard insisted that the woman go to the hospital, he became abusive, and Lombard arrested him.

The second automobile party came along shortly after and took in Mrs. Stanley and Hoffman, who went away.

WASHINGTON HORSEMAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Meadow Brook Club set and hundreds of visitors saw a thrilling escape from death today at the races held at Hempstead Farms, on Long Island.

While riding Solution, in the steeplechase for the Meadow Brook Hunt Club, Mr. Evans, the Washington rider, was thrown as the horse went down, and he lay prostrate until picked up and carried to the club house. A broken collarbone was his worst injury, but he was fortunate, as the accident looked serious.

CLAIMS HE HAS SOLVED THE AIRSHIP PROBLEM

Inventor Only Needs Money to Start the Spiral-Aeroplane on First Trip.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Calvin T. Fried, of Newark, an electrical engineer, who for several years was associated with Thomas A. Edison, has completed a model of an airship which he terms a spiral-aeroplane. He has been working on the idea for fourteen years, but claims now to have it perfected.

Fried will endeavor to have the United States or some other government advance the necessary money for him to build a model large enough for an experiment.

The spiral-aeroplane is similar to a screw propeller. When it revolves the wind will force ahead the car to which it is attached. Fried says that by tilting the latter at certain angles the machine will rise, sail on the level in the air, or descend just as he wants it.

EMPLOYER ACCUSED OF COERCING VOTER

British Law Upholds Right to Cast Ballot "Against Bread and Cheese."

LONDON, May 7.—England guards the secrecy of the ballot box rigidly and protects the voters from ante-election intimidation.

Thomas Blackler, head of a large firm at Torquay, has been bound over for trial, accused of intimidating one of his employees, George Gilding, on a morning of the recent election. Blackler summoned him to his office and told him that protection had hurt his business and he didn't propose to keep in his employ any Radical who voted with the Liberal party.

"I want a high tariff," Blackler said, "and don't you vote against your bread and cheese. I won't have an employee who votes against the firm's interest."

Gilding voted for the Liberal candidate, and declares he was discharged for that. The case is arousing intense interest in political circles.

Employees have often been tried and fined for docking the wages of men who serve in the militia, but not for years has a man been tried for discharging an employee for voting for a political party the employee opposes.

Capital City League Opens Season Tomorrow

Strong Teams, Including Many Old Players, Will Make Up Organization This Year.

Carroll Institute Unable to Join.

The third year of the Capital City Baseball League will be started tomorrow on the grounds at North Capitol and L streets, when the crack Columbia Athletic Club and the strong Arlington baseball teams meet each other.

The teams that compose the league this season are the same as those which made up its list last year, with the exception of the Arlingtons and the Corcoran Cadets. Carroll Institute has dropped out of the fight after having been in at the beginning of the league and one of the founders of the present league, St. Joseph's and St. Patrick's teams have both been relegated to the same place. Carroll Institute was obliged to stay out of the league.

Conditions in the institute demanded that a step of this sort be taken.

Two Grounds Used. Two grounds will be used by the league, and games will be played on these grounds alternately. Monday, Wednesday and Fridays the league will play at North Capitol and L streets, and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at Thirteenth and D streets northwest. A series of twenty-five games will be played, so as to permit the components of the league to meet each other in a post season series, if it is advisable. The umpiring will be again in the hands of "Eddie" Handiboe.

The same constitution in vogue the last two seasons has again been adopted, and the only change made in the same has been in permitting men in this league to play on any other team that they may see fit. Other leagues may use the players, if the managers of the teams in the Capital City League will permit it. The lifting of this ban has been deemed advisable, because of the falling of several of the leagues that were in the harness last year.

St. Stephen's Institute presents the same array of talent that has always been enrolled under its colors, except Rapp, who, it is thought, will be in the ranks of the Nationals. The same pitchers, with the addition of "Jonnie" Sheek, will do the twirling. Carroll will again hold down first and "Shorty" Hughes, captain, will play second. Shortstop has not been filled as yet. The rest of the team will be made up pretty much as last year.

C. A. C. Has Same Crowd.

The Columbia Athletic Club will have the same crowd. Risten committed suicide during the winter, and his place as an all round utility man will be hard to fill. Maurice O'Connor again has the interest of the team to look after. The Aloysius club will be under the tutelage of John F. Luitich. Gus Lay is one of the biggest acquisitions that he has made. He will take "Curly" Brown's place at second. "Billy" Forsythe, the crack outfielder of Carroll Institute, has cast his lot with the North Capitol street boys. The National Athletic Club, under Mc. Cornick and Barkman, will retain most of the players of last year, and should be in the running.

The Corcoran Cadets are an unknown quantity, but Capt. C. E. Edwards and Willie Handiboe, the secretary of the league, intimate that the team they will put in the field will not have any reason to worry. Several prominent players are with them, notable among whom is McCarthy, who last year held down third base for the Aloysius club. Arlington's First Year.

The Arlingtons will be under the supervision of Mr. Danenhower, who has managed their teams in the past. They have on their team some of the best amateurs in the city, and as it is their first year in the league, the men are anxious to show what they can do. In securing the grounds at North Capitol street and L, the managers of the league feel that they have done a good bit of work. The departure of the White Lot will leave the grounds back of the President's mansion to the sole use of the Departmental League, and hence the patrons of the city may see baseball in the various parts of the city. The play grounds committee will use the grounds at North Capitol street in June, but safeguards will be used, so as to protect the children while playing there. Arrangements have been made to provide a wire screen, which will protect the little tots from injury.

YANKEE DOODLE BOY SHOWS LONDON A THING OR TWO

Frank Kramer, of New Jersey, Makes Clean Sweep in Bicycle Tournament—Was Never in Any Danger.

LONDON, May 5.—Demonstrating his superiority as a bicycle sprinter of the first water, Frank Kramer, of East Orange, N. J., the professional champion of America, this afternoon annexed to his credit all of the sprint races which were decided at the Crystal Palace.

In none of the events was the rider from East Orange forced to extend himself, and his victories undoubtedly proclaim him the best bicycle sprinter of the world. Starting right off by winning the mile race, in which Thorwald Ellegaard, the Danish rider, finished second, and J. S. Benyon, the British ex-amateur champion, was third, Kramer easily outdistanced his opponents in the half mile and quarter events. Ellegaard finished second in all of the events, while in the half mile Benyon was third, and in the quarter Heller, the Austrian champion, closed the list.

Kramer's time for the mile was 2:07 3-5; for the half mile, 1:01; for the quarter mile, 0:34 2-5.
